

AUTHORS

Barbara Allen

PhD 2001 Indiana University Bloomington; BA 1989 University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Associate Professor of History at La Salle University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA. Research field: History of Russia since 1861 and of the USSR. Recent monograph: Alexander Shlyapnikov, 1885-1937: Life of an Old Bolshevik (Leiden 2015).

allenb@lasalle.edu

Jairus Banaji

Historian and Research Professor at the School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS), University of London. His most recent books include Theory as History: Essays on Modes of Production and Exploitation (Leiden 2011) and Exploring the Economy of Late Antiquity: Selected Essays (Cambridge 2016).

jb67@soas.ac.uk

Klaus J. Becker

Dr. phil., born in 1963. He is an archivist and historian graduated from the University of Mannheim in 1999. His dissertation examined the History of the Communist Party of Germany (KPD) in Rhineland-Palatinate from 1946 to 1956. He is the chairman of the Sozialdemokratischer Bildungsverein Mannheim/Ludwigshafen and the vice chairman of the Historischer Verein, Ortsgruppe Ludwigshafen-Mannheim. Most important fields of research: History of the labour movement in Palatinate, socialist workers' sport, working class, history of the Social Democratic Party of Germany (SPD). Recent publications: 80 Jahre Asselstein Widerstand und Gedenken (Ludwigshafen 2014); Zeit der Extreme. Die kurpfälzische Arbeiterbewegung zwischen KZ und GULag (Ludwigshafen/Mannheim 2014) (co-editor).

klaus-juergen.becker@ludwigshafen.de

Marcel Bois

Studium der Geschichtswissenschaft, Soziologie und Kunstgeschichte an den Universitäten Konstanz und Hamburg, Promotion an der Technischen Universität Berlin. Derzeit Habilitationsprojekt über die österreichische Architektin Margarete Schütte-Lihotzky an der Forschungsstelle für Zeitgeschichte in Hamburg, gefördert von der Gerda-Henkel-Stiftung. Aktuelle Buchveröffentlichung: Kommunisten gegen Hitler und Stalin. Die linke Opposition der KPD in der Weimarer Republik (Essen 2014).

marcel.bois@gmx.de

Kasper Braskén

Postdoctoral Researcher at Åbo Akademi University in Turku, Finland. He is a historian specialising in German, transnational and social movement history. He is the co-editor of H-Socialisms and the author of several articles on international solidarity, communism and anti-fascism. Braskén is the author of the first comprehensive history of the Internationale Arbeiterhilfe (IAH) titled The International Workers' Relief, Communism, and Transnational Solidarity: Willi Münzenberg in Weimar Germany (Basingstoke 2015).

kasper.brasken@abo.fi

Vadim Damier

Dr. hist. habil., born in 1959. Senior Researcher at the Institute for General History of the Russian Academy of Sciences, and Professor at the Higher School of Economics in Moscow, Russia. Research field: History of social movements. Recent monographs: Stal'noi vek: Sotsial'naia istoriia sovetskogo obshchestva (Moskva 2013); Anarcho-Syndicalism in the 20th Century (Edmonton, 2009); Zabytyi internatsional: Mezhdunarodnoe anarkho-sindikalistskoe dvizhenie mezhdumirovymi voynami (2 vols., Moskva 2006-2007).

vaddam@mail.ru

Jean-François Fayet

Dr., historian. Senior Researcher at the University of Lausanne and Associate Researcher at the Centre russe at the Ecole des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales (EHESS), Paris. He is the author of a biography of Karl Radek and numerous publications on Soviet foreign policy, international communism and anticommunism. He is currently working on Soviet visual culture and on the history of the commemorations of the October Revolution.

Jean-Francois.Fayet@unil.ch

Jan Foitzik

Dr. phil., political scientist and historian. 1976-78 at the Institute for Contemporary History (Institut für Zeitgeschichte), Munich; 1978-93 at the University of Mannheim (Department for the History and Politics of the German Democratic Republic); 1994-2013 at the Berlin branch of the Institute for Contemporary History (IfZ) Munich. Selected publications: Biographisches Handbuch der deutschsprachigen Emigration nach 1933, München 1980-1983 (co-author); Zwischen den Fronten, Bonn 1986; Inventar der Befehle des Obersten Chefs der Sowjetischen Militäradministration in Deutschland (SMAD) 1945-1949 (Offene Serie), München 1995; Sowjetische Militäradministration in Deutschland (SMAD) 1945-1949, Berlin 1999; Entstalinisierungskrise in Ostmitteleuropa 1953-1956, Paderborn 2001 (co-editor); SMAD-Handbuch. Die Sowjetische Militäradministration in Deutschland 1945-1949, München 2009 (Russian edition: Sovetskaia voennaia administratsiia v Germanii 1945-1949. Spravochnik, Moskva 2009); Apparat NKVD-MGB v sovetskoi zone okkupatsii Germanii/GDR 1945-1953 gg. Sbornik dokumentov (with Nikita V. Petrov) (German edition: Die sowjetischen Geheimdienste in der SBZ/DDR von 1945 bis 1953, Berlin u.a. 2009); Sovetskaia politika v otnoshenii Germanii 1944-1954. Dokumenty (with Andrei V. Doronin and Maksim A. Perkov, Moskva 2011) (German edition: Sowjetische Interessenpolitik in Deutschland 1944-1954. Dokumente, München 2012).

foitzik@ifz-muenchen.de

Daniel F. Gaido

Ph.D. (2000), University of Haifa (Israel), is a researcher at the National Research Council (Conicet) in Córdoba, Argentina. He is the author of The Formative Period of American Capitalism (London 2006) and co-editor, together with Richard B. Day, of Witnesses to Permanent Revolution: The Documentary Record (Leiden 2009).

danielgaid@gmail.com

Mark Jones

Ph.D. (2011). Holds an Irish Research Council International Career Development Fellowship (Elevate Fellowship co-funded by Marie Curie Actions) at the Freie University of Berlin and at University College Dublin. He was educated at Cambridge University, the University of Tübingen, and at Trinity College Dublin, where he graduated with a first class honours degree in History and Political Science placed first in his class. His first book, Founding Weimar. Violence and the German Revolution of 1918-19, will be published by Cambridge University Press in 2016.

mark.jones@ucd.ie

Erich Keller

Historian, born 1968. PhD University of Zürich, doctoral thesis published in 2015 (Bürger und Juden. Die Familie Wyler-Bloch in Zürich 1880–1954. Biografie als Erinnerungsraum). Research interest in cultural history, biography, historical anthropology, history of knowledge, and history and practice of communism.

keller@ogre.ch

Mario Keßler

Prof. Dr., Zentrum für Zeithistorische Forschung Potsdam (Germany). Fields of research: Labor movement and anti-Semitism, history of the Comintern and the KPD, German exile intellectuals after 1933, history of historiography. Recent monographs: Ruth Fischer: Ein Leben mit und gegen Kommunisten, 1895-1961 (Köln 2013); Communism: For and Against: The Political Itineraries of Ruth Fischer (Berlin 2013); Moses Hess and Ferdinand Lassalle: Pioneers of Social Emancipation (Berlin 2013).

mariokessler@yahoo.com

Norman LaPorte

PhD, born 1964. Reader in Modern History at the University of South Wales, UK. Main research fields: German communism, British relations with the GDR, aspects of the GDR, biographical approaches to communist studies. Co-editor of the journal Twentieth Century Communism. Recent monographs: Friendly Enemies. Britain and the GDR, 1949-89 (New York 2010) (with Stefan Berger).

norman.laporte@southwales.ac.uk

Avgust Lešnik

PhD, born in 1951; Full professor of Sociology and History of Social Movements at the Faculty of Arts (Department of Sociology), University of Ljubljana, Slovenia. His research focuses on the issue of classical social movements in contemporary European history and on topics situated at the intersection of sociological and historical science (historical sociology). He is member of the advisory board of the INCS and of the editorial board of Annales for Istrian and Mediterranean Studies (Series Historia et Sociologia). He is author of several books and, among other works, studies on the Spanish Civil War.

Avgust.Lesnik@ff.uni-lj.si

Emmet O'Connor

MA, PhD, born in 1954. Senior Lecturer in History, University of Ulster, Northern Ireland. Research field: Irish labour history. Recent monograph: A Labour History of Ireland, 1824-2000 (Dublin 2011).

pej.oconnor@ulster.ac.uk

Holger Politt

Dr., Mitarbeiter der Rosa-Luxemburg-Stiftung, von 2002 bis 2009 Leiter des Büros der Stiftung in Warschau, seit 2011 vor allem befasst mit dem polnischen Werkteil Rosa-Luxemburgs. Seitdem regelmäßig Übersetzungen und Herausgabe polnischer Schriften Rosa Luxemburgs, so "Nationalitätenfrage und Autonomie" (2012), "Nach dem Pogrom. Texte über Antisemitismus 1910/11" (2014), "Arbeiterrevolution 1905/06. Polnische Texte" (2015), "Zur Konstitution und zur Provisorischen Regierung" (2015).

politt@dietzberlin.de

Wolfgang Schlott

Apl. Professor an der Universität Bremen, Forschungsstelle Osteuropa. Forschungsschwerpunkte: Polonistik, Russistik, Kulturgeschichte Osteuropas, Jugendsoziologie, Filmästhetik. Jüngste Monographie: Von der Darstellung des Holocaust zur "kleinen Apokalypse". Fiktionale Krisenbewältigung in der polnischen Prosa nach 1945 (Frankfurt am Main 1996).

wslott@hotmail.de

Brigitte Studer

Licence ès lettres (MA) 1982 University of Fribourg, 1991-1992 PhD studies Ecole des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales Paris, 1994 PhD in History University of Lausanne, University Prize for the PhD thesis. Since 1997 full professor for Contemporary History (Swiss and General) at the University of Bern. Research fields: International Communism, Stalinism, Gender, citizenship, labour protection. Recent publication: The Transnational World of the Cominternians (Basingstoke 2015).

Brigitte.Studer@hist.unibe.ch

Ramin Taghian

Born in Vienna in 1983. MA in history. Works as a social worker with minor refugees and as a museum pedagogue at the Museum of Military History in Vienna. Member in the research cluster of the APPEAR consortium project "Rooting development in the Palestinian context". His diploma thesis was published in 2014 ("Grenzgänger des Sozialismus: Die transnationale Dimension der frühen sozialistischen Bewegung im Iran 1905-1911"). Research interests among others: history of internationalism and international solidarity, history and politics of the Middle East (particularly Iran, Egypt, Near East), the Arab uprisings since 2011, imperialism and colonialism. He is member of the editorial board of the blog project "Mosaik - Politik neu zusammensetzen".

ramintagh@mail.com

Reiner Tosstorff

Dr. phil. Bochum 1986, Habilitation Mainz 1999. Publications include a history of the POUM in the Spanish Civil War (Die POUM in der spanischen Revolution, new ed. Köln 2016) and a history of the Red International of Labor Unions (Profintern: Die Rote Gewerkschaftsinternationale 1920–1937, Paderborn 2004). Currently works on a biography of Robert Dißmann, a metal workers and left social democratic leader during the first years of the Weimar Republic.

Reiner.Tosstorff@uni-mainz.de

Ksenija Vidmar Horvat

PhD, born in 1966; Full professor of Sociology of Culture and a senior lecturer in General Sociology at the Faculty of Arts (Department of Sociology), University of Ljubljana, Slovenia. Her research includes European studies, identity, memory, and postsocialism, and of late also involves biography studies related to the historical-sociological discussion on women's migrations. She is member of the editorial board of the journals European Journal of Cultural Studies, Review of Sociology, and The Public. She is author of several books: Maps of in-between-ness: essays on European culture and identity after the Cold war (Ljubljana 2009); The role of mass media in the formation of Slovenian European consciousness (ed., Ljubljana 2012); Cosmopolitan Patriotism (Ljubljana 2012); Imagined Mother: Gender and Nationalism in 20th Century Culture (Ljubljana 2013); Integration of Europe: past views and future visions (ed., Ljubljana 2014); Women Away, Women on the Way: Female Migrants in the Slovene National Imagination (ed., Ljubljana 2014), and other works.

Ksenija.VidmarHorvat@ff.uni-lj.si

Frank Wolff

Dr. phil., beschäftigt sich als wissenschaftlicher Mitarbeiter und Vorstandsmitglied des Instituts für Migrationsforschung und Interkulturelle Studien (IMIS/Neueste Geschichte) der Universität Osnabrück mit jüdischer Geschichte, Migrationsgeschichte und deutsch-deutscher Beziehungsgeschichte. Seine an der Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore und der Universität Bielefeld verfasste Dissertation zur transnationalen Geschichte des Allgemeinen Jüdischen Arbeiterbundes erschien 2014 bei Böhlau (Industrielle Welt. 86). Im akademischen Jahr 2016/17 ist er als Max Kade Distinguished Visiting Professor in German Studies an die Notre Dame University, Indiana (USA) eingeladen. Derzeit arbeitet er an einem interdisziplinären Sammelband zu Migrationsregimen (mit Andreas Pott und Christoph Rass) und an seiner Habilitationsschrift „Die Mauergesellschaft: Die Gesellschaftsgeschichte der deutsch-deutschen Migration 1961-1989“.

frank.wolff@uni-osnabrueck.de